CONDITIONS OF USE

1. All requests to reproduce the holdings in the Vorhoff Library and Newcomb Archives Collections Dept., which may include photographs, film, video, digital scans, and any and all other formats, must be submitted on this application. By signing this application, the applicant agrees to abide by all terms, conditions, and provisions of this agreement. Permission for reproduction is granted only when this application is countersigned by an authorized representative of the Library and Archives. Permission for reproduction is granted only for the expressed purpose described in this application. This permission is non-exclusive; the Library and Archives reserve the right to reproduce the image and allow others to reproduce the image. Any subsequent use (including subsequent editions, paperback editions, foreign language editions, et cetera) constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing to the Library and Archives. Any change in use from that stated on the application (e.g., increased size of edition, change in market) requires permission from us. In the event that the applicant engages in unauthorized reproduction of photographs or other materials, the applicant agrees to pay us a sum equal to three times the normal commercial fee, not as a penalty but as liquidated damages agreed upon due to the difficulty in assessing actual damages incurred; the Library and Archives may in the event of unauthorized reproduction require surrender of all materials containing such unauthorized reproductions, and the applicant agrees that such materials shall be immediately surrendered upon receipt of request from the Library and Archives. The Library and Archives reserve the right to refuse reproduction of its holdings if it feels fulfillment of that order would be violating copyright law or other law. The Library and Archives reserve the right to refuse reproduction of its holdings and to impose such conditions as it may deem advisable in its sole and absolute discretion in the best interests of the department.

2. Beyond the permission of the Library and Archives, additional permissions may be required. Those permissions may include, but are not limited to: Copyright: In cases of living artists or and/or subject to the 1976 Copyright Law or the 1991 Visual Artists Rights Act, written permission must be secured by the applicant from the artist, his/her agent, or the copyright owner and provided to the Library and Archives before a photograph of an artwork will be released.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS: The copyright law of the United States (title 17, USC) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, archives and libraries are authorized to furnish a photocopy or reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if in its judgment fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Privacy: An individual depicted in a reproduction has privacy rights as outlined in Title 45 CFR § 46 (Protection of Human Subjects).

3. The Library and Archives reserves the right to require a release from individuals whose privacy may be violated by the production of this image.

Owner of original: In instances where the Library and Archives hold only a reproduction, the written permission of the owner of the original is required. It is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain permission to publish from the owner of copyright (the institution, the creator of the record, the author, or his/her transferees, heirs, legatees, or literary executors). The Library and Archives does not claim to control copyright for all materials in the collection, nor does the Library and Archives have any readily available information concerning the existence and/or whereabouts of copyright owners. In instances where the individual or organization who may grant permission cannot be contacted, the Library and Archives may consider granting permission for reproduction based on the applicant's evidence of a good faith effort to contact with the appropriate individual. However, the Library and Archives assume no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or any other improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of any image. In all instances, the applicant agrees to defend, indemnify, and save and hold harmless Newcomb College, Tulane University, the Vorhoff Library and the Newcomb Archives, and their employees or designates, from any and all costs, expense, damage and liability arising because of any claim whatsoever which may be presented by anyone for loss or damage or other relief occasioned or caused by the release of said photographs to the undersigned and their use in any manner, including their inspection, publication, reproduction, duplication or printing by anyone for any purpose whatever.

4. All reproductions must include the name of the Vorhoff Library and Newcomb Archives in a caption or credit. The Library and Archives may also require that the artist/creator, the title of the work, and the object's catalog number appear in the caption or credit as well. Credits should appear in close proximity to the image or in a special section devoted to credits. However, reproductions distributed electronically must contain the credit or caption as part of the image displayed in letters which are at least 3/8" high and in a legible typeface. When permission is granted to disseminate reproductions electronically, the Library and Archives reserves the right to require an electronic watermark or other identifying code within the scanned file. The payment of a commercial use fee does not exempt the user from the credit line requirement. Failure to include a credit line or electronic water mark, or inaccurate captions or credits shall require the applicant to pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100) per image, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty in view of the difficulty of assessing actual damages for this breach.

5. Copy photographs or other imagery supplied by the Library and Archives may not be copied, scanned, exhibited, resold, or used for any other purpose than that specified in this application. Copies shall not be deposited in another library or archives

6. Unless approved in advance by the Library and Archives, each image MUST be reproduced unaltered and in its entirety; the image must not be cropped, overprinted, printed on color stock, or bleed off the page. The Library and Archives reserve the right to examine proofs and captions for accuracy and sensitivity before publication with the right to revise if necessary. The Library and Archives reserves the right to refuse any request and to impose such conditions as it may deem advisable in the best interests of the Library and Archives. If permission is granted to distribute electronically, scanned files must be destroyed once the final product has been produced. The applicant covenants, represents, and warrants of the Product will not contain any feature which would permit users to distort or mutilate the image, nor will the Product be intentionally designed or prepared so as to be compatible with any computer program which is designed to manipulate graphic images. The permission granted hereunder does not include the right to include the image in any printed or electronic materials accompanying the Product, or in any advertisement for the Product other than as expressly permitted below:

NOTE: Electronic applications--WWW pages, CD-ROM, scanning, etc.--require separate permission from the Library and Archives. Solely in connection with the marketing and distribution of the Product, applicant may use the image on the packaging of the Product and in any advertisement, product catalogs, or publicity or promotional materials (a "Promotional Use"), provided that if the image is so used, the Vorhoff Library and Newcomb Archives, Newcomb College, Tulane University shall be given a credit in the same page as the image appears.

Applicant agrees that any Promotional Use will be made solely in a manner which indicates that the image is part of the content of the Product, and the Library's name will not be used as aesthetic or design elements in such Promotion Use. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, applicant shall not use the image or Library's name in any manner which creates any association between the image and/or the Library and applicant to such an extent that any goodwill towards the Product or applicant arises in the image and/or Library's name, and applicant agrees that it will not have right, under any circumstances whatsoever, to claim, and will not claim, that such goodwill has arisen or the applicant is entitled to the benefits, if any, thereof.

7. Payment of all fees, including use fees, is required before permission is granted. Default in payment shall immediately revoke permission. If the size of edition or number of editions exceeds the terms specified in this application, the applicant shall immediately pay the difference in use fees. If payment is not received within thirty (30) days, the applicant agrees to pay a use fee equal to twice the originally quoted use fee.

8. The applicant agrees to send the Library and Archives two copies, best edition, of the work containing the reproduction at no charge. All expenses for shipping and handling are to be borne by the applicant.

9. Contract Claims and Controversies: All contract claims and controversies arising under this contract shall be resolved pursuant to existing Louisiana laws and the policies and procedures of the Library and Archives, and Tulane University.

10. CREDIT LINE MUST READ: Vorhoff Library and Newcomb Archives, Newcomb College, Tulane University

11. Reproduction is permitted only from prints, scans, or transparencies supplied by the Library and Archives

12. The permission hereby granted terminates immediately upon publication.

13. If so requested, a proof must be approved by the Curator of Books and Records before any reproduction of an image in color.

14. Additional conditions or exceptions to the above requirements:
